VERSE 1

Hm

On a bridge across the Severn on a Saturday night

A

Susie meets the man of her dreams

Hm

He says that he got in trouble and if she doesn't mind

A

He doesn't want the company

PRE-CHORUS

Hm

But there's something in the air, they share a look in silence

A

And everything is understood

(mute)

But Susie grabs her man and puts a grip on his hand

As the rain puts a tear in his eye

CHORUS

Hm G

She says, don't let go

Em F#m

Never give up, it's such a wonderful life

Hm G

Don't let go

Em F#m

Never give up, it's such a wonderful life

INTERLUDE

Bm A

VERSE 2

Hm

Driving through the city to the Temple station

A

Cries into the leather seat

Hm

And Susie knows the baby was a family man

A

But the world has got him down on his knees

So she throws him at the wall and kisses burn like fire

Hm

And suddenly he starts to believe

Hm

And he takes her in his arms and he doesn't know why

A

But he thinks that he begins to see
