

THE FLOOD

[Verse 1]

D G
Standing, on the edge of forever
Bm
At the start of whatever
F#m
Shouting love at the world
D G
Back then, we were like cavemen
Bm
But we met the moon and the stars
F#m
Then we forgave them

[Pre Chorus]

Em G
We will meet you where the lights are
Bm F#m
The defenders, of the faith we are
Em
Where the thunder turns around
G Bm
They'll run so hard we'll tear the ground away

Em B
You know no one dies
Em B
In these love drowned eyes
Em B
Through our love drowned eyes
F#sus4 F#
We'll watch you sleep tonight

[Chorus]

G D
Although no one understood
Bm
We were holding back the flood
F#m
Learning how to dance the rain
G D
We were holding back the flood
A
They said we'd never dance again

[Verse 2]

D G
Bleeding, but none of us leaving
Bm
Watch your mouth son
F#m
Or you'll find yourself floating home

[Pre Chorus]

Em G
Here we come now on a dark star
Bm F#m
Seeing demons, not what we are

Take That

Tempo 101 Orig. D-Dur
Raphael N. P4ab/2011

Em
Tiny minds and eager hands
G Bm
Will try to strike but now will end today

Em B
There's progress now
Em B
Where there once was none
Em B
Where there once was none
F#sus4 F#
Then everything came along

[Chorus] alternate[Chorus] alternate

G D
Although no one understood ...
G D
There was more of them than us
A
Now they'll never dance again
G D
Although no one understood
Bm
There was more of them than us ...

[Pre Chorus]

(Instrumental:)

G - D - Bm - F#m
G - D - A

[Chorus] alternate

G D
Although no one understood
Bm
There was more of them than us
F#m
Learning how to dance the rain
G D
There was more of them than us
A
Now they'll never dance again

G
Now we'll never dance again
D Bm F#m G D A
Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh ahh, Oh aah ...